SIX CLERKS, CHANCERY, IRELAND.

COPIES OF THE CERTIFICATES

Filed by The Right honourable The Lord Chancellor of Ireland in the Office of the Auditor General in Ireland, in the case of the Claim of Francis Dwyer, Esq. Second Six Clerk of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, for Compensation, under the Act 4 Geo. IV. c. 61; together with, A Copy of The Lord Lieutenant's Warrant thereon;—pursuant to the Act 6 Geo. IV. c. 30.

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 5 July 1825.

ATTESTED Copy Certificate of the Lord Chancellor, on the Petition of Francis Dwyer, Esquire, ascertaining the Net Income of his Office, on an Average of Seven Years prior to 1st January 1823.

IN Pursuance of the Act of the fourth Year of his present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter sixty-one, section sixty, by which it is directed that I should, on the Petition of the present Six Clerks and other Officers of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, and their Deputies, make inquiry into the Salaries and Emoluments of such of said officers who shall, by petition, desire that such inquiry should be made with a view to ascertain the average annual amount of such Salaries and Emoluments in said office for a period of seven years next preceding the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, in such manner, and with such views and intent as in said Act specified; and I should certify, under my hand and seal, the amount of the yearly income and emoluments of each of said officers in said Court, on an average of seven years next preceding the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and that such certificate should remain and be filed in the office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, there to remain and be conclusive as to all such matters, and to the purposes of said Act;—

I, the Right honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, have accordingly, on the petition of Francis Dwyer, esquire, Second Six Clerk of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery of Ireland, caused inquiry to be made into the Salary and Emoluments of said office of Second Six Clerk of said court:

And I do certify, That the total amount of the fees claimed and received by the said Francis Dwyer, as constituting the gross income and emoluments of the said office for the business transacted therein for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, amounted to the sum of £.34,341. 2. 0½. the particulars whereof are set forth in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, and which makes part of this my certificate:

That the sum of £.413 10. 9. should be deducted from the said gross sum of £.34,341. 2. 0½. as having arisen partly from computing the contents of office sheets at seventy-two words instead of ninety words, as well as from other fees, being fees, claimed and disallowed on duplicates of charges and discharges, and costs in pauper causes, and which had not been received from the opposite parties; the particulars of which deductions are set forth in the Schedule, N° 3, hereunto annexed, which also makes part of this my certificate:

That there should be also deducted from the said sum of £.34,341. 2. 0½. the sum of £.3,717. 6. 7½. which was applied to paying the expenses on exemplifications of decrees, and emolument of dismisses, payments of King's silver, and Purse Bearer's fees, and in paying the salaries of the junior clerks, and in defraying the expenses of said office for books, stationery, scrivenery, housekeeper, coals and candles, during said period of seven years, specified in the Schedule, N° 4, hereunto annexed, which also makes part of this my certificate.

That after excluding out of the gross income and emoluments of said office the deductions aforesaid, being the whole of the deductions to be made under and in pursuance of the said

Act, the net income and emoluments of the said office of said Francis Dwyer, as Second Six Clerk of the said court of Chancery, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, amounted to the sum of £.30,210. 4. 8. and that the annual net income and emoluments of said office, within said period, amount to the sum of £.4,315. 14. 11¾. as specified in the Fifth Schedule hereunto annexed, and which also makes part of this my certificate.

Given under my hand and seal at Dublin, the 16th day of June 1825.

ATTESTED Copy Certificate of the Lord Chancellor, on the Petition of Francis Dwyer, Esquire, ascertaining the Net Income of his Office for one year, commencing the 3d Nov. 1823, and ending the 2d November 1824.

IN pursuance of the Act of the fourth of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 61, section 62, and of an Act of the sixth of George the Fourth, to amend said Act of the fourth of George the Fourth, by which it is enacted, that at the end of one year from the third of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, or within twelve months after, on the petition of any of the present officers or deputies of the Court of Chancery, who should by petition desire the same, I should ascertain in the manner in the said Act prescribed, the gross income of the office of such officer, in the said year; and that if the said gross income should be less than the average gross income in the office of such officer, so theretofore certified as in said Act mentioned, then that I should inquire and ascertain, in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any part thereof, arose from said Act, or from any of the provisions therein, or from said orders in said Act mentioned; and that in case it should appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof, did so arise, then that I should certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from said Act, or any of the provisions thereof, or of the said orders, and so in every succeeding year, to inquire and certify, in like manner, so long as any of the said officers or deputies should live, and retain their said offices; and that every such Certificate should remain and be filed in the Auditor General's office in Dublin Castle, there to remain and be conclusive, as to all such matters, and to the purposes of said Act;—

Now I, the Right honorable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, have accordingly, on the petition of Francis Dwyer, Esquire, Second Six Clerk of the High Court of Chancery of Ireland, caused an inquiry to be made into the gross and net income of the said Francis Dwyer, in his said office, for one year, commencing on the 3d day of November 1823, and ending the 2d day of November 1824, and whether the gross income arising from said office in said year has been less than the average gross income of said office heretofore certified by me, in pursuance of said Act; and if so, whether said deficiency, or any part thereof, arose from said Act, or from any of the provisions therein, or of the said orders.

And do certify, That the total amount of the gross income of the said office of said Francis Dwyer, for the period of one year, commencing the 3d day of November 1823, and ending the 2d day of November 1824, is less than the average gross income of said office, as heretofore certified by me, and now of record in the Auditor General's office in Dublin Castle, by the sum of £.2,177. 17. 6. as appears by the First Schedule hereunto annexed, and which makes part of this my Certificate.

And do further certify, That certain parts of such deficiency arose in consequence of the provisions of said Act of the 4th George the Fourth, chapter 61, and a general order of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, of the 29th January 1824, in pursuance of said Act, and amount in the whole to the sum of £. 1,179. 4. 9. for which sum of £. 1,179. 4. 9. the said Francis Dwyer is entitled to receive compensation, pursuant to the several directions and provisions of said Act, as appears by the Second and Third Schedules hereunto annexed, and which makes part of this my Certificate.

Given under my hand and seal, at Dublin, this 30th day of June 1825.
